

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON 25, D.C.

STATINTL

We have studied most carefully your letter of 10 December 1962 and the enclosures. I am sure you will agree that no useful purpose would be served by our commenting on the specific items enumerated in your letter. Particularly, this is so in view of our detailed discussion on 28 November 1962 and our other telephone conversations.

You may be assured that I have made an exhaustive examination of this entire matter. I have been advised that under the law applicable to this Agency there is no way in which we can afford relief directly related to the matters raised in your letter and in our discussion, as I recall, I believe you had reached a similar conclusion. Further, I have investigated carefully all possibilities of providing assistance in other ways. However, I have been unable to discover any Agency requirements at this time which could afford other assistance to [REDACTED]

STATINTL

While I am fully appreciative of the situation in which [REDACTED], now finds itself, I have been unable, as indicated above, to determine any way that we can be helpful.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
Deputy Director
